
Map traced from aerial photographs taken by U S A A F
16 DPU, 4M700, 5V170-5V172, July 8, 1944

EXPLANATION

The various trees and shrubs are indicated by the following letter symbols

- A Aspen
- B Dwarf birch
- G Grassland
- M Marsh
- P Lodgepole pine
- P′ Small lodgepole pine
- Sb Black spruce
- Sw White spruce
- W Willows

The various trees and shrubs are shown by the following map units For units of more than one species, the dominant species is placed first in the symbol

A AP P PA WA AW P W — Aspen, lodgepole pine, and willows in various mixtures

PSb SbP SbA — Lodgepole pine, black spruce, and aspen in various mixtures

SwP Sw — White spruce and lodgepole pine in various mixtures Balsam poplar associated with white spruce on flood plains

Sb SbW BWSb — Black spruce, willows, and dwarf birch in various mixtures

B BW P′ Sw — Dwarf birch, willows, small lodgepole pine, and white spruce in various mixtures

W — Willows

M — Marsh

WG AG — Willows, aspen, and scattered grassland in various mixtures

Approximate boundaries of map units shown on generalized terrain and vegetation map (pl 14) See also fig 31 and pl 15

MAP OF VEGETATION TYPES IN A PART OF THE BEATTON VALLEY

889407 O - 50 (In pocket)