DMA-1815-X — Tungsten

Dear Mr. McCausland:

Pending receipt of additional information from you, we are holding your application for an exploration project costing $15,000 on the Yukon-Black Beauty claim in the Old Woman Mountains, San Bernardino County, California.

The very sketchy answers you have given to questions on form MF-103 are inadequate. The following are among the items missing: mining experience of person who will manage the project; owner of property; precise location of prospect with relation to adjoining properties; accessibility; description of mineral deposit, with assays and at least a sketch map; precise statement of what exploratory work will be done where, with location of shafts and tunnel and amount of work to be done; detailed estimates of costs, giving item by item the proposed expenditures.

For your information, a copy of the exploration contract form is enclosed so that you can see the information that is attached to the contract as exhibits A through E.
