(4) Physical description

(a) There are five old exploration or mining prospector holes. There are no production facilities in connection with these diggings. All diggings are easily accessible.

(b) Not applicable

(c) This property is located on the east side of the Double-Header Mountain. The minerals that are apparent on the surface include Mica and Quartz in addition to the quantity of Beryl that was thrown out of one of the diggings. We have reason to believe that the quality of Beryl is of an exceptionally fine grade and this mineral has been discovered in other areas on this mountain by other property owners which may indicate a large quantity.

We do not possess any technologic information or geologic reports.

(d) All parts of this property are accessible or could easily be made so. We are 27 miles west of Denver and have two permanent residences on the property.

(e) At present no one is engaged in working on this project because of our unfamiliarity with mining.

Water and power (REA) are available.
