
1/ Park and Cannon, 1943
2/ Dings and Whitebread, 1965
3/ Fyles and Hewlett, 1959

Figure 3. -- Composite stratigraphic sections of the Cambrian rocks in northeastern Washington and adjacent British Columbia. Sections are plotted on 125,000 scale base of Figure 14. Base of Reeves Limestone Member of the Laib -Maitlen Phyllite is located at the approximate center of the composite section. The upper ends of the open ended columns are terminated by either erosion or a fault, the open ended lower ends, by lack of exposure.