

National Assessment of Oil and Gas Project:

Geologic Assessment of Undiscovered Oil and Gas Resources of the U.S. Portion of the Michigan Basin

By Michigan Basin Province Assessment Team

U.S. Geological Survey Digital Data Series DDS-69-T

Main Contents

ReadMe File

Assessment Reports

Spatial Data

Cover photograph: Potato Patch Falls, located on the south shore of Lake Superior in the Pictured Rocks National Lakeshore, Michigan. The falls are on cross-bedded sandstones of the Upper Cambrian Chapel Rock Member of the Munising Formation. Note the large basaltic erratic in the upper left. Photograph courtesy of Linda K. Harrison, Western Michigan University, 2007.