

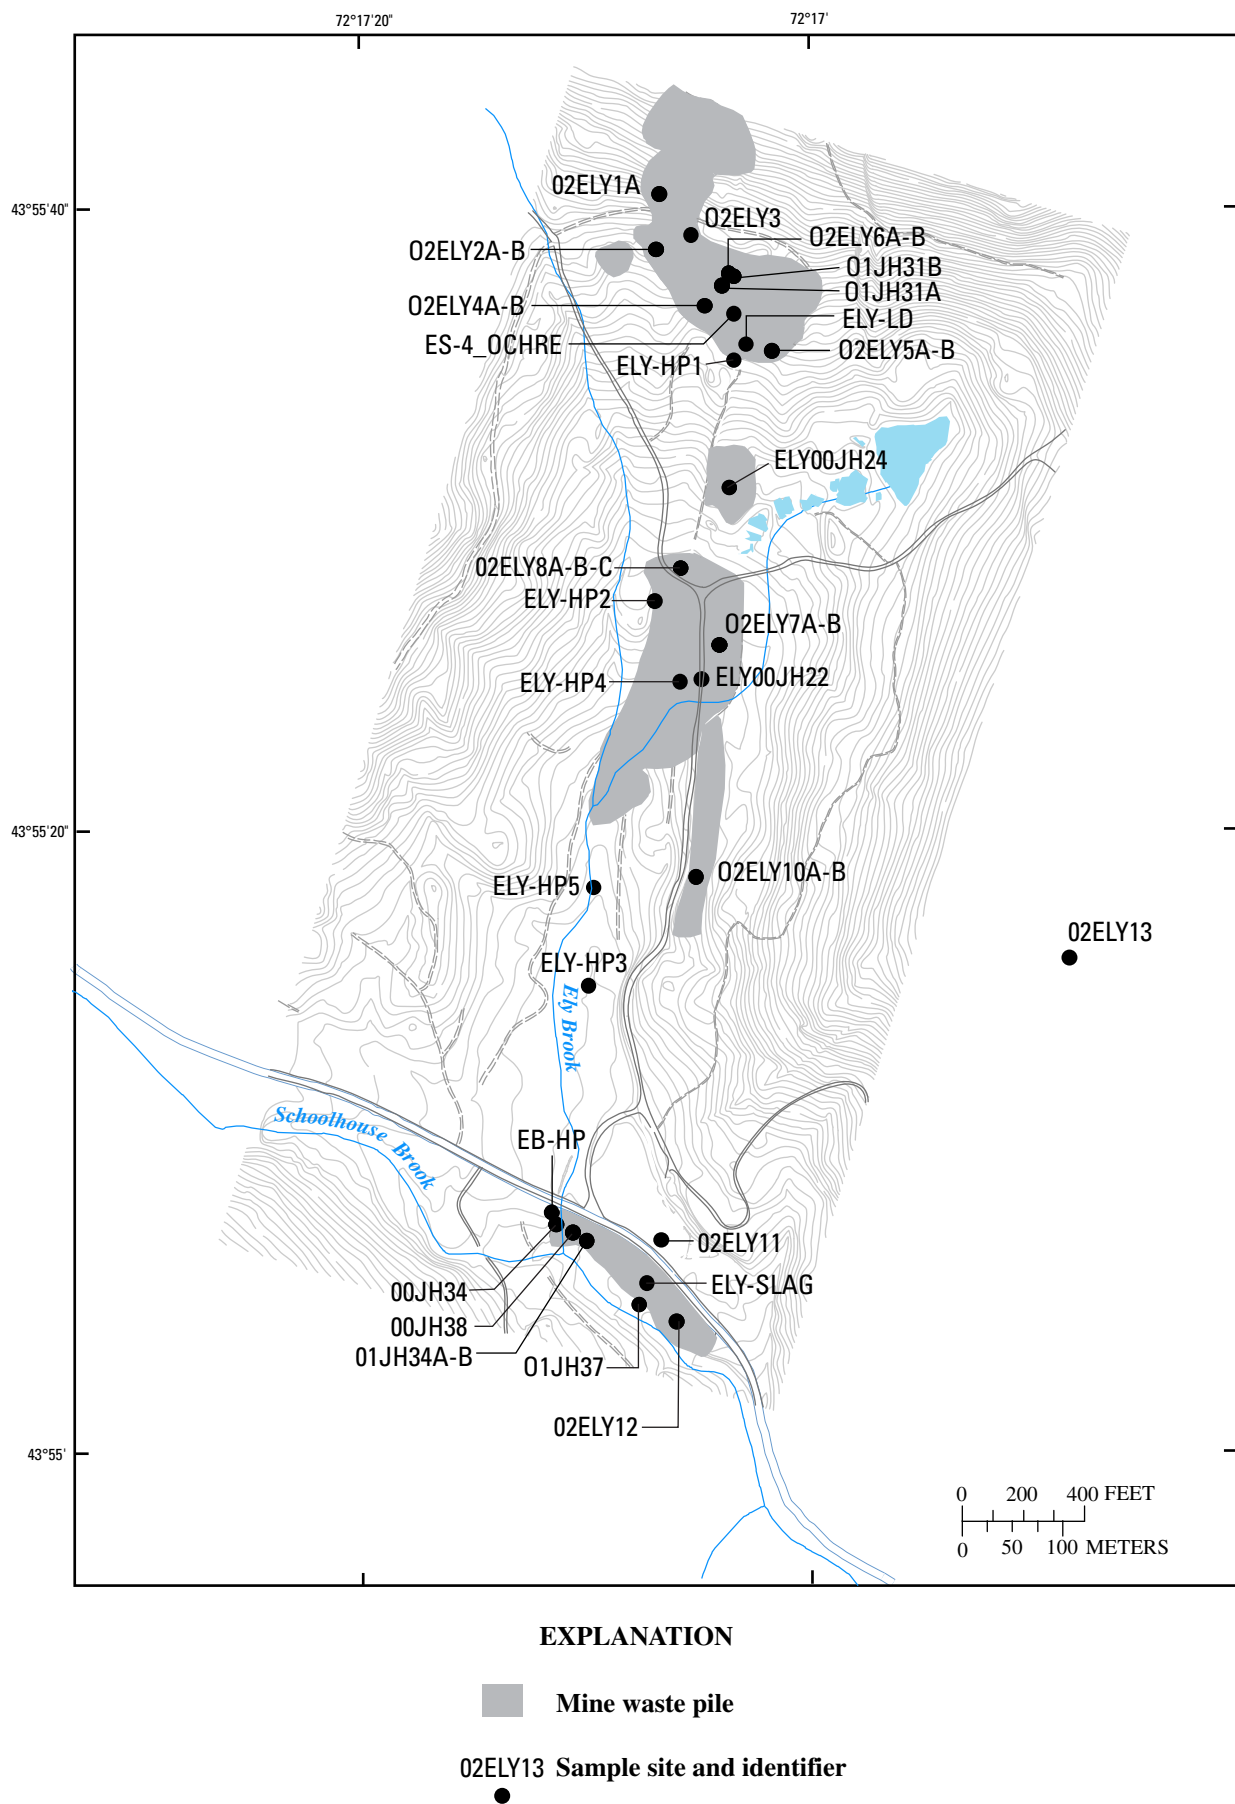

Figure 3. Location of soil samples collected in and around the piles of mine waste at the Ely Copper Mine Superfund site in Vershire, Vermont. The sample from location 02ELY13 was collected near the end of a smoke flue which previously had been connected to a smelter.