

Figure C3. 1991 contour map of the 5 percent damped, 0.3 second pseudo-acceleration spectral response, expressed in percent of the acceleration of gravity, with a 10-percent probability of exceedance in 250 years. The map values include estimates of variability in the attenuation of spectral acceleration and in fault rupture length.