

Figure 1.3. The Massachusetts Bay outfall consists of 55 diffuser heads connecting to a tunnel that transports an average of 350 million gallons per day of secondary treated sewage effluent from the Deer Island Treatment plant.