DESCRIPTION OF MAP

The topographic map of the area was generated in 1952. The map includes various features such as rivers, lakes, and the topography of the region. The map is divided into sections with a grid for easy reference.

CONVENTIONAL SIGNS

The map uses different symbols to represent various features such as water bodies, mountain ranges, and vegetation. Each symbol is explained in the legend of the map.

TOPOGRAPHIC MAP

CONTROLLER BAY REGION

ALASKA

The map provides a detailed view of the Controller Bay region in Alaska, showing the geographical features and topography of the area.