Post-Algonkian (Unaltered)

Metamorphic sediments and intrusives, chiefly Paleozoic, possibly in some part pre-Cambrian; on the Pacific coast in part Mesozoic

Algonkian including Keewatin areas in Canada and the Lake Superior region

Ancient schists and intrusives (Generally pre-Cambrian but including Paleozoic and possibly younger metamorphic rocks and intrusives. In Canada the Laurentian in general)

Geology compiled from maps of the United States, Canadian, and Mexican Government and State surveys and other sources by C. R. Van Hise and C. K. Leith

MAP OF NORTH AMERICA, SHOWING DISTRIBUTION OF PRE-CAMBRIAN ROCKS

Scale 100 50 25 0 100 300 600 MILES

1907