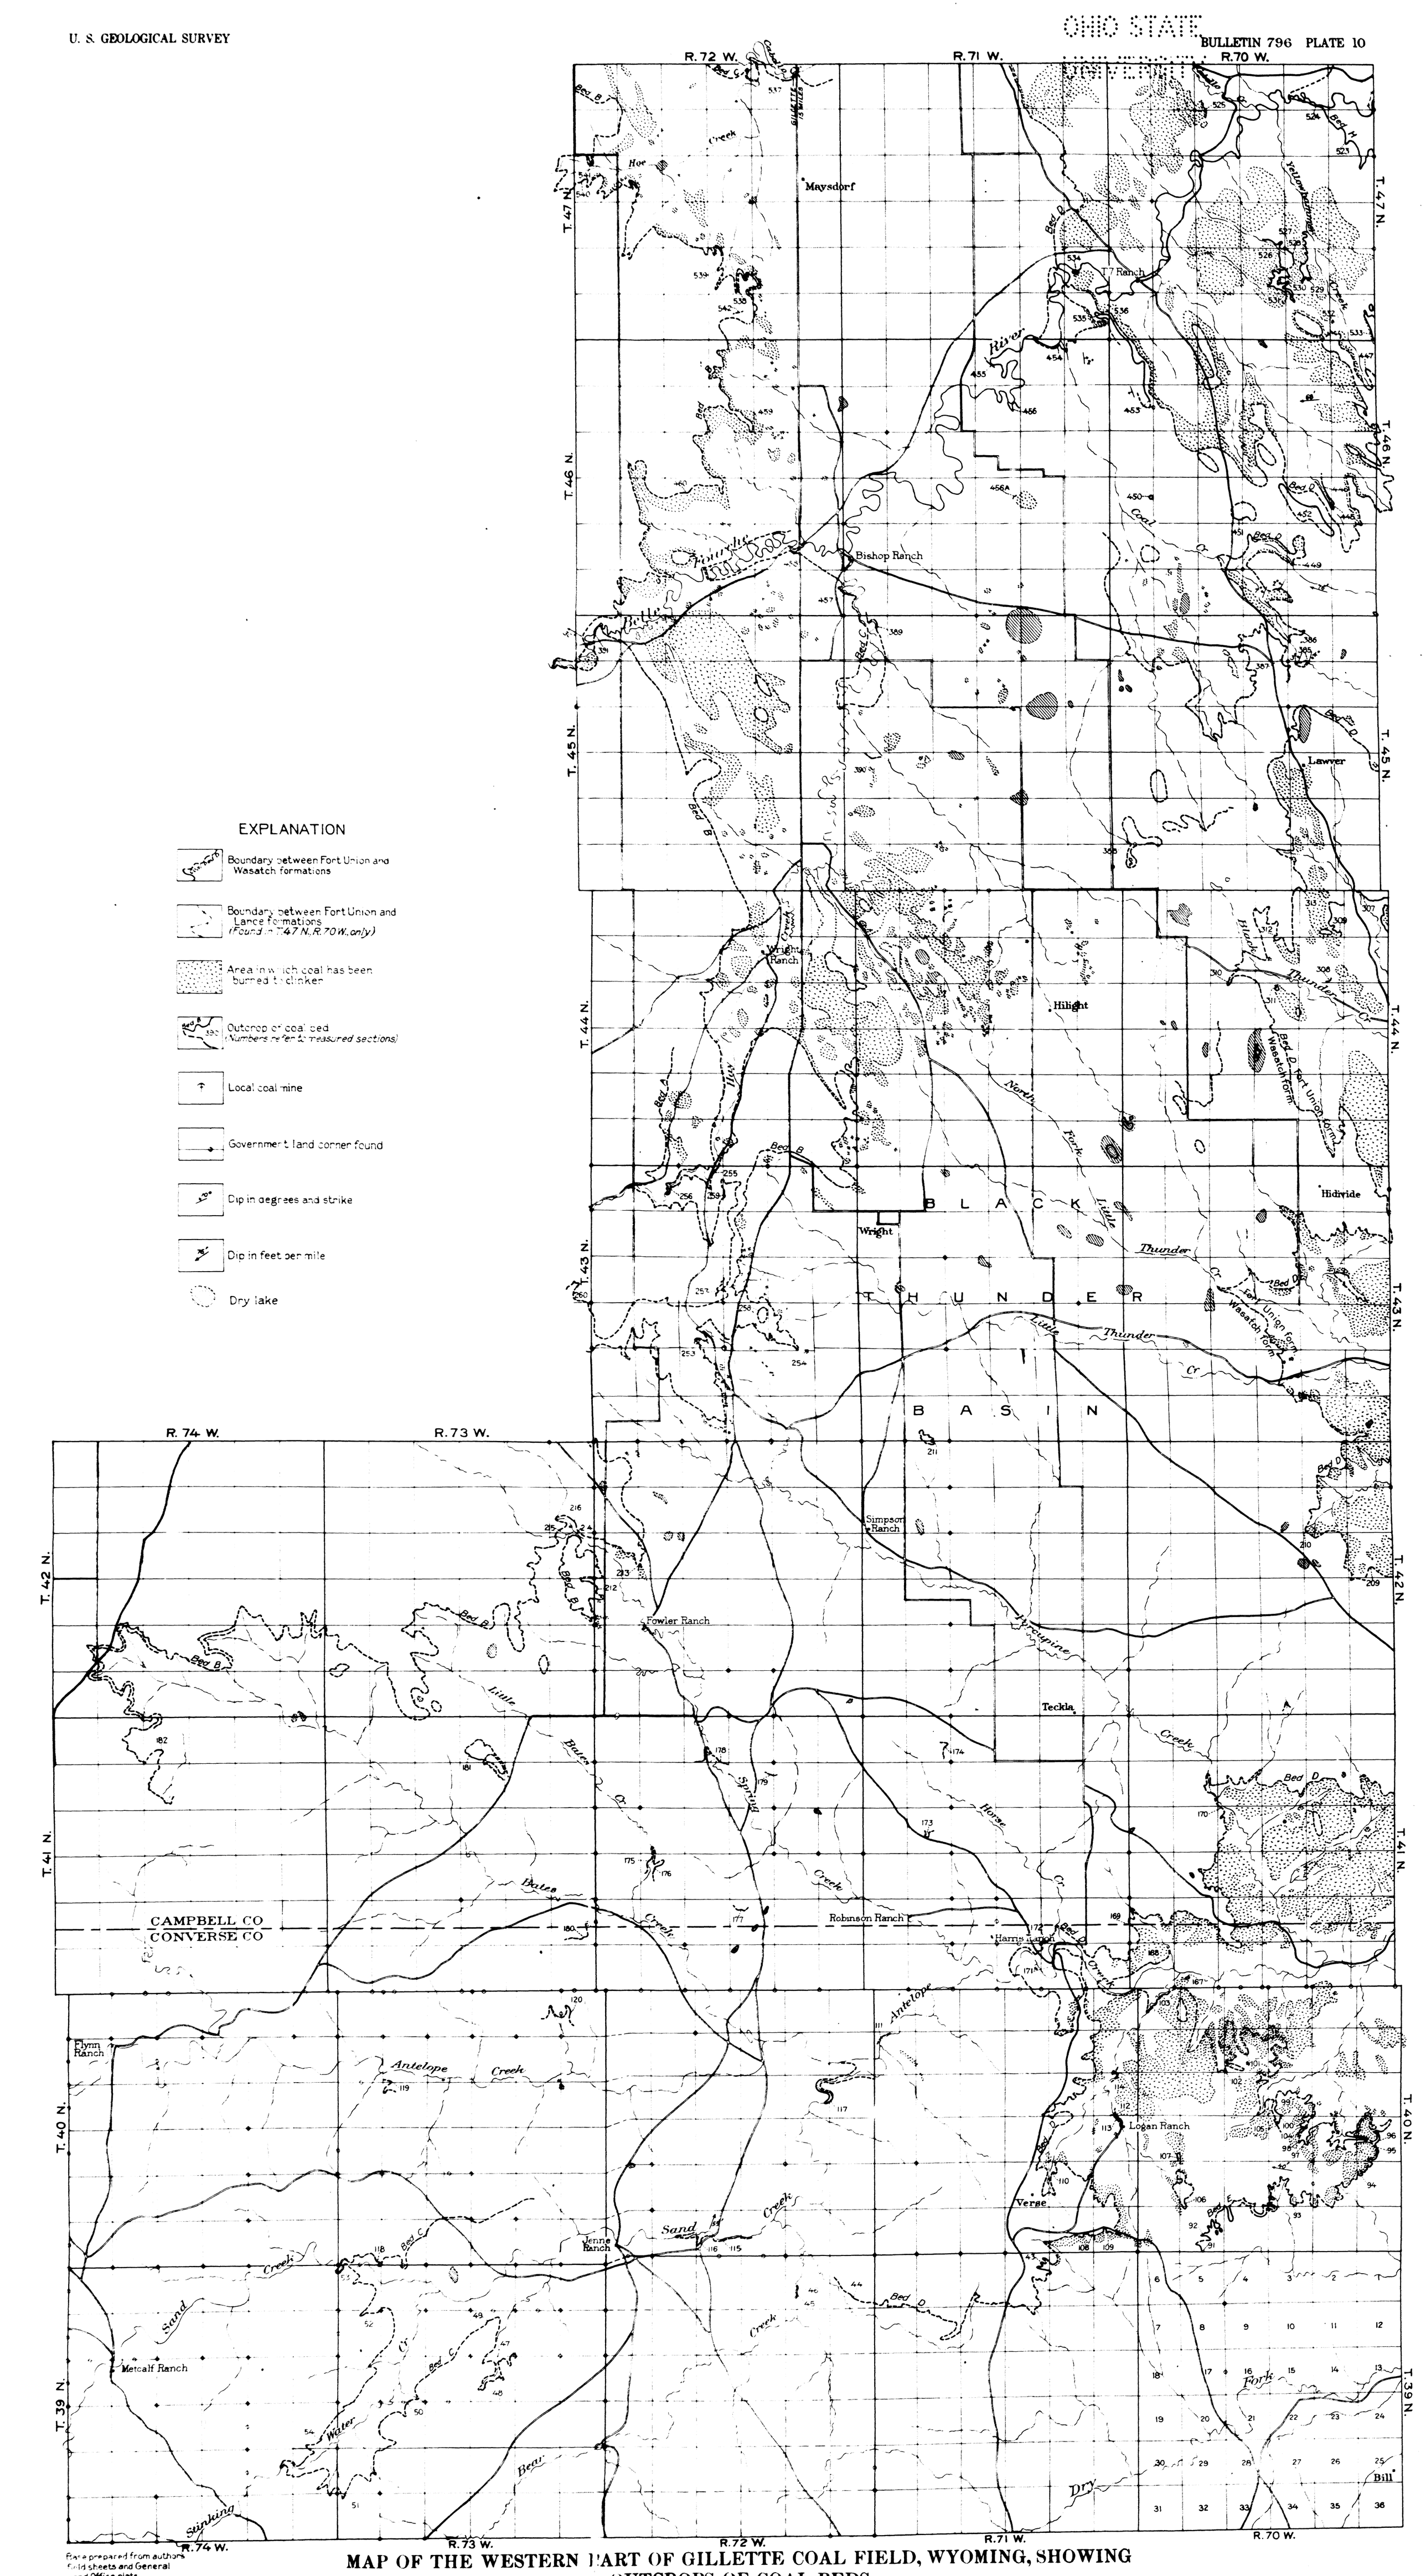
OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY



EXPLANATION

- Boundary between Fort Union and Wasatch formations
- Boundary between Fort Union and Lance formations (Found in T.47 N. R.70 W. only)
- Area in which coal has been burned to clinker
- Outcrop of coal bed (Numbers refer to measured sections)
- Local coal mine
- Government land corner found
- Dip in degrees and strike
- Dip in feet per mile
- Dry lake

Base prepared from authors' field sheets and General Land Office plats

MAP OF THE WESTERN PART OF GILLETTE COAL FIELD, WYOMING, SHOWING OUTCROPS OF COAL BEDS

Scale 125,000

0 1 2 3 4 5 Miles