

- EXPLANATION
- Moraine gravels and alluvium (Quaternary and Tertiary)
 - Intrusive rocks (Late Cretaceous and early Tertiary)
 - Sedimentary rocks (Cretaceous, Jurassic, Triassic, and Carboniferous undifferentiated)
 - Silver Plume and Boulder Creek granite (Pre-Cambrian)
 - Schist and gneiss (Pre-Cambrian)
 - Area of important tungsten production
 - Tungsten veins
 - Gold and silver veins
 - Barren breccia reef veins and faults, locally called dikes

Base from U.S. Geological Survey

GEOLOGIC MAP OF THE BOULDER COUNTY TUNGSTEN BELT AND ADJACENT AREA

Geology by T.S. Lovering

1940