

LIBRARY
OHIO STATE
UNIVERSITY

- Latite, quartz latite, and andesite flows
- Granite
- Quartzite
- Quartz mica schist, amphibolite, and similar metamorphic rocks
- Fluorite veins, and areas of silicified granite containing numerous fluorite veins and veinlets up to 11 feet wide
- Silicified zone along fault

- Pegmatite
- Contact
Dashed where approximately located
- Fault showing dip, bearing, and rake of striations and grooves
Dashed where approximately located
- Probable fault
- Strike of vertical joints
- Closely spaced parallel joints showing dip (sheeting)
- Inclined shaft
- Pit
- Claim monument

Topography by Elliot Gillerman and J. F. Schreiber, Jr.,

Geology by Elliot Gillerman, Sept. 1948

GEOLOGIC MAP OF THE CONTINENTAL FLUORSPAR DEPOSIT AND VICINITY, GRANT COUNTY, NEW MEXICO

