

- EXPLANATION
- Overburden
Mostly glacial deposits
 - Predominantly granite, granitic gneiss and pegmatite
 - Interlayered granitic rocks and amphibolite; some pegmatite
 - Amphibolite and pyroxene amphibolite with subordinate interlayered granite and granitic gneiss
 - Pyroxene skarn, interlayered amphibolite, granitic gneiss, and some pegmatite
 - Magnetite
 - Contact, approximately located
 - Probable fault

Diamond-drill holes by U.S. Bureau of Mines

Geology by H.E. Hawkes, Aug - Oct 1943

Vertical and horizontal scale
50 0 200 Feet

SECTIONS THROUGH DIAMOND-DRILL HOLES, SWAYZE FARM MINE, HUNTERDON COUNTY, NEW JERSEY