Assumed datum is 4150 feet at portal of main tunnel

Workings are in Yelowstone member of the Merritt Peak limestone (Mississippian)

Fault, showing dip
Dashed where approximately located

Vertical fault

High-angle fault
U. upthrown side; i. downthrown side

Strike and dip of beds

Bedded unit, showing dip

Portal of tunnel

Stope opening at surface

Inclined workings
Churches point down at 5-foot vertical interval

Foot of raise or winze

Head of raise or winze

Stope workings, showing height in feet

Tunnel and other mine workings in breccia ground

Elevation of floor of mine workings

Ore zone extends south of this point in discontinuous streaks

Geologic map and section by Arthur Williams and David A. Phoenix, 1964-65