

Figure 11. Scandium and yttrium, elements associated with rare earths deposits, show strong correlations in this data set with thorium, an element closely associated with REE occurrences in monazite. Park (1990) reported lanthanides such as cerium in exceptionally high levels in other South Korean samples. Analysis of our samples for the lanthanides is in progress.