

Figure 16B. BASS current sensor. Currents are measured by pairs of acoustic sensors mounted on two rings spaced 20 centimeters apart vertically. The light blue lines indicate the acoustic paths between the four pairs of transducers on the upper and lower ring. Photograph by Dann Blackwood, U.S. Geological Survey.