

Prepared under the direction of the Engineer, HQ, AFPEB Army (rear) by the Military Geology Branch, Intelligence Division, Office of the Engineer with personnel of the U.S. Geological Survey. Base adapted from controlled Okinawa Photomaps 1947-1948, by 64th Eng. Base Topo Bn, with additional topographic and cultural details from JMS 1:50,000, 1:25,000, and Engineering Geology, Okinawa, 1:50,000, 1951 by MGB, ID, OE. Engineering materials data based on geologic field investigations 1946-1948.

LEGEND

Hard surface, all-weather road, two lanes wide Loose surface, graded, all-weather road
Loose surface, dry weather, or dirt road Route number
Built-up areas
Pit or Quarry
Shoreline and drainage
Seawall

GLOSSARY

dake	mountain(s), hill	misaki	cape, point
gawa	stream	saki	cape, point
hanto	peninsula	san	mountain(s), hill
jima	island, rock	shima	island
kawa	stream	take	mountain
mi	harbor, bay	wan	bay
minato	harbor	zaki	point, cape

Based on geology by Delos E. Flint and Raymond A. Sapias

U.S. ARMY MAP SERVICE, FAR EAST - 57-042 - 5-15 - 9-157 - 3-7C

INDEX MAP

OKINAWA-JIMA, RYUKYU-RETTO