

Prepared under the direction of the Engineer, Hq., AFPEB Army (Rear) by the Military Geology Branch, Intelligence Division, Office of the Engineer with assistance of the U.S. Geological Survey. Base adapted from collected Okinawa Photomaps 1947-1948, by 4th Engr. Base Top. Bn. with additional topographic and cultural details from AMS 1791, AMS 1801, and Engineering Geology, Okinawa, 1:100,000, 1951 by MGIs, IO, OE. Engineering materials data based on geologic field investigations, 1946-1949.

LEGEND

Hard surface all-weather road, two lanes wide

Loose surface, graded, all-weather road

Loose surface, dry weather, or dirt road

Route number

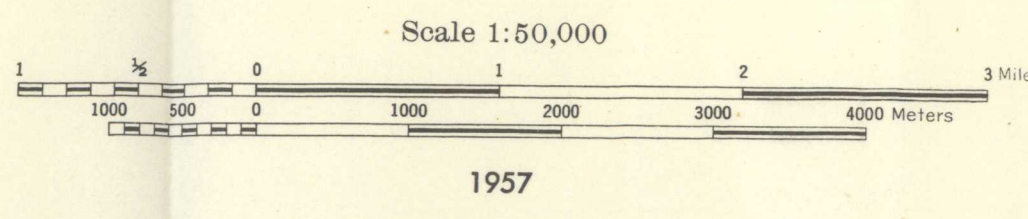

Built-up area

Pit or Quarry

Shoreline and Drainage

Seawall

dake	mountain(s), hill	misaki	cape, point gawa	stream	saki	cape, point hanto	peninsula	sau	mountain(s), hill jima	island, rock	shima	island
kawa	stream	taka	mountain
ko	harbor, bay	wan	bay
minato	harbor	zaki	point, cape

Based on geology by Delos E. Flint and Raymond A. Saplis

U.S. ARMY MAP SERVICE, FAR EAST - 57-042 5-15 9-57 - 370

