EXPLANTION

The cavity on this map indicates the point material of sedimentary thickness (generally greater than 1 foot) encountered beneath the soil layer. The soil layer (commonly a foot or two thick) is not exposed. Some materials, such as sand and gravel, may occur as isolated lenses within each map unit. "Gravel" particles range from 10 to 64 percent by weight of the soil. Areas not shown here are subject to detailed site evaluation.

REFERENCES