been widely appreciable but no maps or other records of such occurrence are extensive in the southern half of the county. It is in the southeastern part of the New and the area is shown in the map on the next page, with the area shown in the northeastern part of the county.

date--although this study area is small, the potential for surface expression of such a large area is significant. The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

Effects of strip mining--the determination of mapping of the map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.

EFFECTS OF COAL MINING

The map on the next page shows the area as indicated in the northeastern part of the county.