Figure 15.--Downstream view of the Gila River channel 2.5 miles above the mouth of the San Carlos River. Note the stranded logs in the channel near the lower left corner of the photograph and the dense, low growth of saltcedar on the channel debris farther downstream. Photographed July 15, 1965.