This report is an update of Open-File Report 80-1251 and is written in conjunction with Open-File Report 83-577. This report includes a list of bibliographic citations found on pages 2-17 and an index map showing post-1930 geologic maps published by the United States Geological Survey at scales 1:20,000 to 1:63,360 (through Oct 82).

Each area outlined on the index map is indicated by a number, which is keyed to the list of bibliographic citations published for that area. Geophysical maps have been excluded.
