

EXPLANATION

- WELL
- SPRING
- ▲ CONTINUOUS-RECORD GAGING STATION
(See table 8)
- △ MISCELLANEOUS MEASUREMENT SITE WITHOUT A GAGE
(Discharge records in table 7)

Number by symbol indicates number of wells or springs represented

Letter by symbol indicates:

- C, water-quality data in tables 6 (wells and springs) and 7 (surface-water sites)
- D, discharge of springs in table 4
- D, drillers' logs in table 5
- W, water-level measurements in table 3

Map of the Kolob-Alton-Kaiparowits coal-fields area, south-central Utah showing location of hydrologic-data sites.

Base from U. S. Geological Survey 1:250,000 quadrangles, Cedar City, Utah (1953 revised 1971), Escalante, Utah (1956 revised 1970)

Hydrology by G. G. Plantz, 1983