

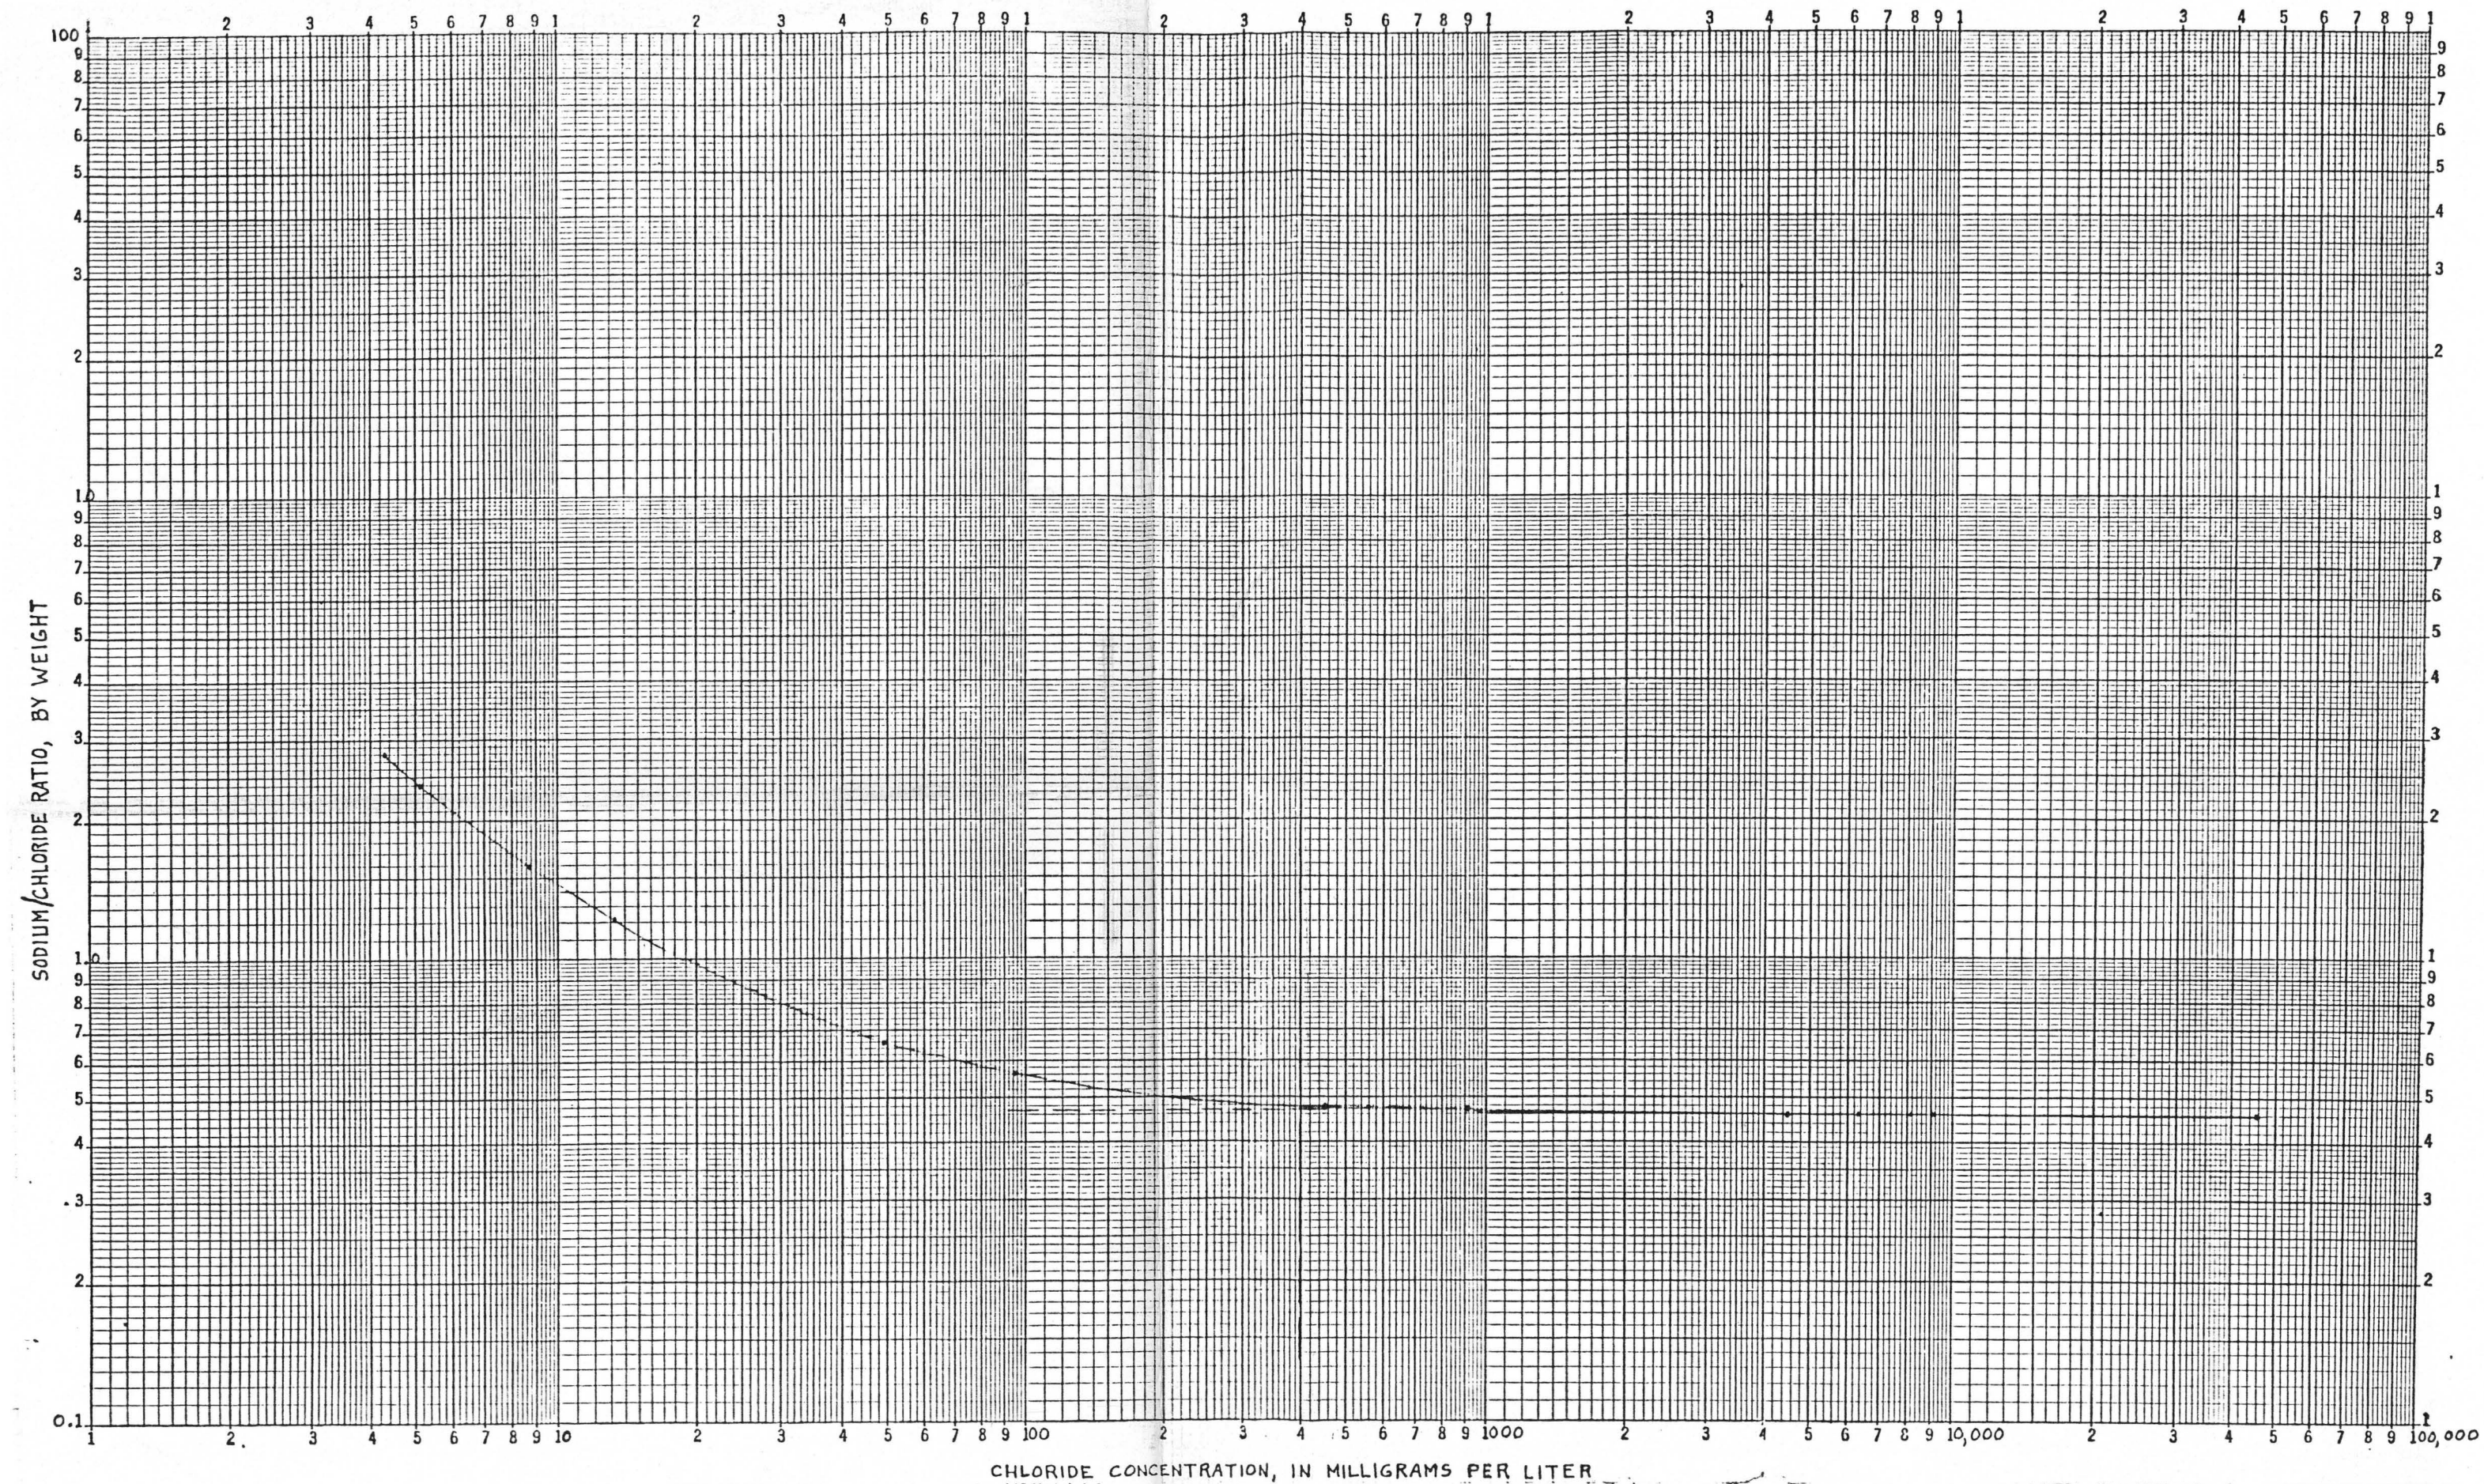

Figure 6. - Relation of sodium/chloride ratios to chloride concentrations resulting from the hypothetical mixing of two solutions with different volumes and concentrations. Concentrations range from 12 to 42,000 milligrams per liter of sodium and 2 to 100,000 milligrams per liter of chloride.