

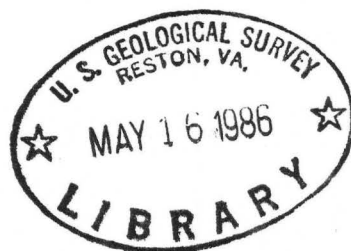

Figure 8.—View looking upvalley along Verdure Creek, south of Monticello. Bounding faults (marked by arrows) on either side of the valley form a graben valley. The sides of the valley are formed by the Dakota Sandstone and Burro Canyon Formation, But the valley bottom is covered with alluvium. The Abajo Mountains are in the background.

(200)
R290
no. 85-568

2