

Figure 5a. Processed boomer subbottom profile with interpretation of reflection horizons. This north-south oriented profile, located off Fire Island, shows the Coastal Plain unconformity where the truncations of coastal-plain strata are clearly seen. Water depth in meters is assuming a seismic velocity of 1500 m/s. See figures 4 and 6 for profile location.