

Figure 7. Sidescan-sonar mosaic of the high-backscatter lineaments east of Watch Hill formed by reworking of Pleistocene glaciofluvial and early Holocene estuarine sedimentary deposits exposed at the sea floor. Light tones depict areas of high backscatter, dark tones areas of low backscatter within the image. See Figure 2b for location.