

Figure 7. Enlarged image of two rippled scour depressions showing the long-crested ripples which floor the high-backscatter depressions. Ripple crests are oriented roughly shore-parallel, as illustrated by the white lines. The sharply defined eastern boundaries of the high-backscatter areas are also displayed. See Figure 6 for location.