

Figure 1. Map showing the location of the Hudson Shelf Valley offshore of New York. Moorings A-F were deployed from December 1999 to April 2000 as part of a field program to investigate the transport and fate of sediment and associated contaminants. Wind observations were obtained at Ambrose Tower (ALS) and at Buoy 44025. Sea level observations were obtained at Sandy Hook (SH).