

Fig. 10- Fluvial terraces have incised the boulder debris fan along Le Conte Creek on the lower part of the fan (elevation = 1400 ft). This excavation of a parking lot shows rounded cobbles of Thunderhead Sandstone deposited unconformably above weathered Roaring Fork Sandstone. The fence and house are approximately 100 ft above Le Conte Creek. This view is to the south, up the fan.