

Fig. 11- At the lower end of drainages, coarse alluvium unconformably overlies bedrock, (arrow) along the West Prong Little Pigeon River, Gatlinburg quadrangle. Subsequent incision by streams exposes bedrock in the channel. Exposure is 2 m high (elevation 1370 ft).