

Fig. 13- Looking southeast at a tributary of Cove Creek in Wear Cove (above), at fining-upward alluvium of the flood plain about 1-meter thick. Close-up (below) shows fine silt and sand above sub-rounded cobbles of fine meta-sandstone (elevation 1400 ft, Wear Cove quadrangle). Knife in foreground for scale.

