

Fig. 27- Sinkholes develop where dissolved limestone creates underground voids, with subsequent collapse of overlying materials. These sinkholes are about 3 m deep and occur on the north side of Cades Cove (elev = 2000 ft, Cades Cove quadrangle).