

Fig. 29- Sub-angular boulders of light gray jasper, approximately 1 m diameter, litter the surface of areas underlain by Shady Dolomite on the south side of Chilhowee Mountain (elev = 1100 ft, Kinzel Springs quadrangle).