

Fig. 47- Very large boulders of metaconglomerate are on the surface of the boulder debris fan of Cherokee Orchard (also see fig. 8). A single boulder approximately 45 ft long was transported from Mount Le Conte and later broke into 3 blocks (elev = 2400 ft, Mt. Le Conte quadrangle).