

Pre-disinfection Enterococci Data

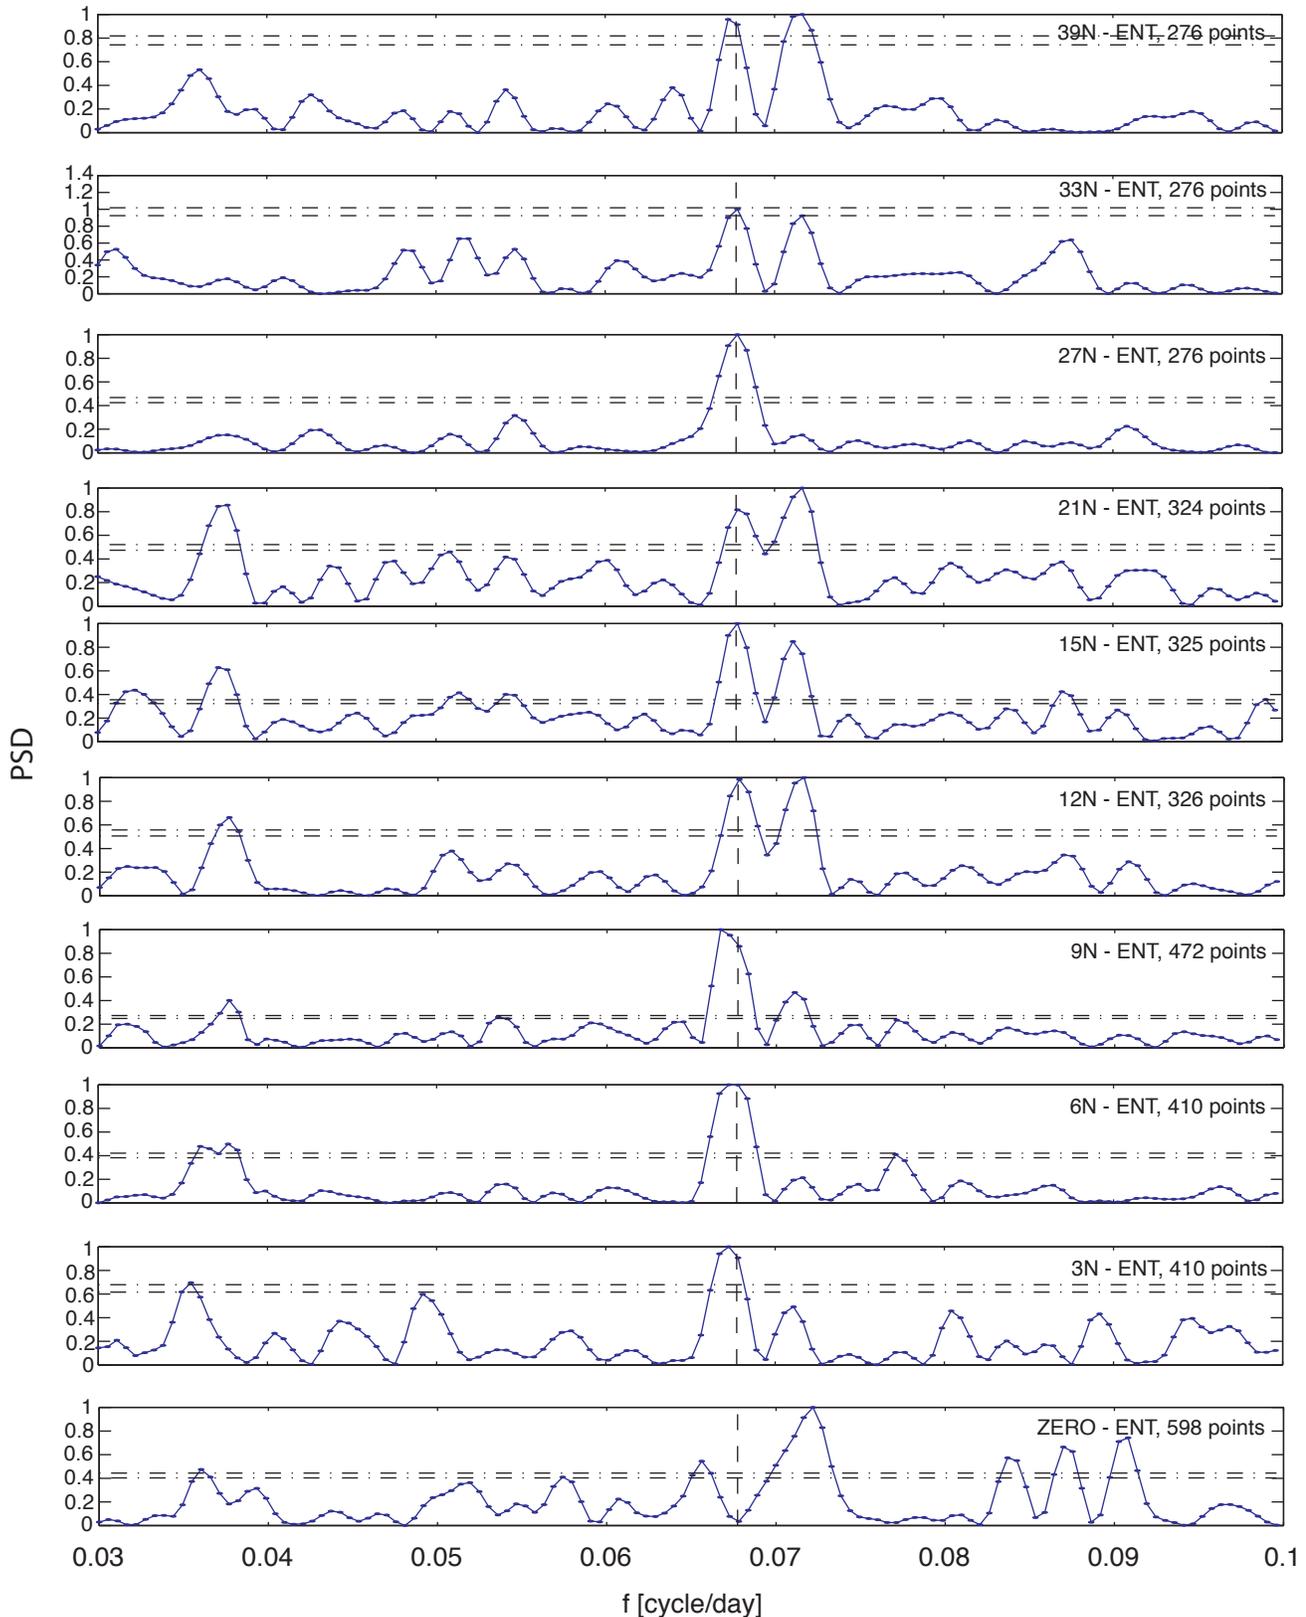

Figure 11-6c. Periodograms of the log of the bacterial counts for enterococci before disinfection of the OCS D effluent. The periodograms have been normalized by the maximum value in each plot. The vertical dashed lines denote periods of 14.77 days (fortnightly cycle). A spectral peak must be above the horizontal dashed line to be significant at the 95% confidence level.