

This CD-ROM should automatically start on a Microsoft Windows personal computer.

If it does not:

1. Left-click on the "My Computer" icon to access your drives.
2. Right-click on the CD drive on your computer;
3. Choose "Explore" from the menu; and
4. Open Mainmenu.htm with your Web browser.

The content of the CD-ROM is designed to look and act like a Web site. External links, which are presented as Web addresses (for example <http://www.usgs.gov/>), appear as Web links, require an Internet connection, and may change over time.

The database is a Microsoft Access 2000 database. Database documentation is in Adobe Acrobat format. A free copy of the Acrobat Reader is available in the software directory of the CD-ROM. Please see the installation instructions and end-user license provided in this directory.
