

Figure 5. Map showing slope of the sea floor. The slope is typically 3-5° over the continental slope, less than 0.5 ° over the upper rise, and 0.5-1.2° over the lower rise. The slope of the canyon walls range from 5-25°.