

Figure 8.—Photomicrograph of greisenlike rock (sample 6578, fig. 2, sector D). Dominant mineral is muscovite (m); contains less quartz (q) and epidote (e). Ochre derived by oxidation of molybdenite is also present but not shown in this figure. A, plane polarized light; B, cross polarized light. Field of view is 1.4 mm wide.