

F 1022 – Azraq oasis area

Well F 1022 “AZ 11” in the Azraq oasis area is a monitoring well where the rate of decline increased in the 1990’s. The current trend is -1 m/yr. Based on the current trend, the saturated thickness is forecast to decline to 53 percent of the B4/B5 aquifer at this location by 2030.

