

F 3979 – West of Azraq oasis area

Well F 3979 “SGWE 6 (GERMAN PROJECT)” in the area west of Azraq oasis in Azraq groundwater basin is a monitoring well where the B4 aquifer is forecast to be only 14 percent saturated in 2030. The current trend is estimated as -0.53 m/yr, which is also the average linear trend fit to all data. The depth to water data show a shift in water levels during 2009 – 2010. The rate of decline may have slowed somewhat since the mid-2000’s.

