

AL3324 –Southwestern part of Zarqa groundwater basin

Well AL3324 “AIN GHAZAL DEEP NO 4”, in the southwestern part of Zarqa groundwater basin, is an abstraction well with water level monitoring data in the MWI database. The overall linear trend is the highest rate of decline of all wells analyzed in the basin, -6.3 m/yr. However, the current trend cannot be determined because data is only available until 2007.

