

AL3396 – Northeastern part of Zarqa groundwater basin

Well AL3396 “HUSSAYNIYAT MONITORING 2” in the northeastern part of Zarqa groundwater basin is a monitoring well where the water level is currently declining more steeply than during the early 2000’s. The current trend is -2.4 m/yr. At this rate, the B2/A7 aquifer is forecast to be completely desaturated at this location by 2025.

