

GEOLOGIC MAP
 OF KASAAN PENINSULA
 PRINCE OF WALES ISLAND
 ALASKA

Scale 1:50,000
 1 2 3 4 Miles
 1 2 3 4 5 Kilometers

Contour interval 50-feet.
 Datum is mean sea level.
 1914

- LEGEND
- |                                    |                                       |       |
|------------------------------------|---------------------------------------|-------|
| QUATERNARY                  |                                       |       |
| Qgl                                |                                       |       |
| Alluvium and glacial gravels       |                                       |       |
| STRATIFIED ROCKS            |                                       |       |
| DEVONIAN (1)                |                                       |       |
| Dl                                 | Dg                                    |       |
| Limestone (Chiefly Lower Devonian) | Graywacke, quartzite and conglomerate |       |
| INTRUSIVE ROCKS             |                                       |       |
| Di                                 | Gr                                    |       |
| Diabase and basalt dikes           | Granitic intrusives                   |       |
| MINERALIZED AREAS           |                                       |       |
| Prospect                           | Mine (open cut)                       | Shaft |
| Mine tunnel                        |                                       |       |

Geology by C. W. Wright
 Surveyed in 1907-1908, under the direction of Alfred H. Brooks