

(Faces p. 114)

CHART SHOWING THE DISTRIBUTION OF THE SPECIES OF ECHINODERMS IN THE CORES.

Each column represents a core. The vertically ruled rectangles represent echinoderm-bearing samples. The numbers at the left of the rectangles are the serial numbers of the samples; the numbers at the right correspond to the numbers of the species of echinoderms listed below the column that represents core 11.