

A

B

C

D

COMPOSITE PIEDMONT PROFILES

A, Glacier National Park, showing relations of the high drift-covered bench on Swiftcurrent Ridge north of Lake Sherburne. B, Glacier National Park, showing relations of the high drift-covered bench on Howe Ridge north of Lake McDonald.

C, Mission Valley, drift-covered rock spurs and moraines at west foot of the Mission Range, east of Saint Ignatius, Mont. D, Lost Horse, Rock, and Tin Cup Creeks, showing relations of the drift-covered piedmont bench remnants at the eastern ends of the interstream mountain ridges between glaciated gorges.