

ISOMETRIC PROJECTION SHOWING THE RELATION OF BAUXITE DEPOSITS TO THE BURIED POST-MIDWAY EROSION SURFACE IN THE PULASKI MINING DISTRICT, ARKANSAS

Hills of nepheline syenite (no pattern) are flanked by sediments of the Midway group (green stipple). Both rocks are overlain by the bauxite deposits (red) shown as they appeared before mining.
Hundred-foot subsurface contours with reference to mean sea level are shown

By Marian Wheeler with the assistance of P. B. King

INTERIOR—GEOLOGICAL SURVEY, WASHINGTON, D. C. M. R. 2074