

EXPLANATION

X, present topographic profile (as shown at stage F).
Y, postulated position of topographic profile at various stages of basin development. Difference between X and Y is the result of regional uplift in late Tertiary time.
Z, top of Precambrian rocks at the beginning of deformation (as shown at stage A).

PROGRESSIVE STAGES IN THE STRUCTURAL EVOLUTION OF THE WIND RIVER BASIN DURING THE LARAMIDE OROGENY

