DESCRIPTION Proceed about 3.1 mi southeast along the East Entrance highway from its junction with the Canyon-Lake highway (just west of Fishing Bridge), thence 2.75 mi east along the old highway (now particularly a trail). Bench mark is located at the point where the old highway breaks out of a treed side hill and into an open meadow, where a few small pine trees are encroaching eastward into the meadow, about 20 m south of the point where the old road emerged from the meadow, and 27.2 m due east of a solitary 3-foot-diameter boulder that projects 2 feet. The boulder is about 5 m southwest of the centerline of the old road. Bench mark is set on 5/8-inch copper coated rod encased in 6-inch drainpipe.

View east of boulder and mark (at person's feet).
